

Vision, Mission & Core Values

Vision

To provide leadership in training excellent manpower to guide the course of education, industrial development, research capacity development and public service nationally and internationally.

Mission

To achieve distinction in provision of education, research capacity development, scholarship and public service through production of quality graduates to service Industry, Research Institutions, Academia and other related sectors.

Core values

- Uphold professionalism in training, research and consultancy
- Promote innovativeness and creativity in biotechnological research
- Promote quality customer service
- Promote sensitivity to conservation of environment in all our activities.
- Promote honesty integrity and tolerance among staff and students

Source URL: <http://biochem.uonbi.ac.ke/node/3>