

Dr. Ezekiel Onyonka Mecha a lecturer in the department of Biochemistry, College of Health Sciences attended a 'Life Science Bridges' networking workshop held on 3-7th July 2017 at Schloss Rauisscholzhause, Schlosspark 1, 35085 Ebsdorfergrund, Marburg, Germany. The workshop was organized by Justus-Liebig University's International graduate school for life Sciences, Germany. During the event, Dr. Mecha had a meeting with his collaborators Profs Lutz Konrad and Hans Rudolf Tinneberg (pictured) both of the department of Obstetrics and Gynecology of Justus-Liebig University, Giessen, Germany where they discussed the modalities of establishing a collaboration between the departments Department of Biochemistry, University of Nairobi and Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology of Justus-Liebig University, Giessen. He also made a presentation on the status of his collaborative endometriosis research between the two departments.